

Dear Tatter....

Unfortunately certain of my files have been directly linked to without my permission.

Since I pay monthly for my web site to spare all who visit those pesky ads, I would appreciate it if those who wish to link pdf files on my site, ask permission to do so consequently, the file you have been directed to has been moved.

If you would like the file please feel free to visit my tech links page here and enjoy the other pages on my web site as well:

Thank you for your understanding and I apologize for the inconvenience.

Sincerely,

Bina Madden
